Manners 1: This is a 7-week basic manners/learning course to teach you how to train and communicate with your dog using marker based training. The first class is a required 90 minute orientation without dogs. (Prior students and/or puppy grads do not have to attend orientation.) Orientation covers use of the facility, dog training and behavior essentials and exercises to begin in preparation for week two. The entire course concentrates on teaching your dog impulse control and attention to you, greeting people without jumping or pulling, loose leash walking and responding to verbal cues (e.g., name, sit, down) in distracting situations. Class is for dogs five months of age and older who are mostly friendly to people & other dogs. Class is limited to 6 students.

$105 for one dog. Puppy grads receive a $5 discount.

Schedule:

Sat., Aug. 16, 2014: Orientation 9 – 10 a.m. (Owners only; dogs stay home.)

Aug. 23 thru Oct. 4, 2014: 9 – 10 a.m. Class meets weekly for one hour. (No class on 9/6.)

Location: 210 S. Sampson St., Tremont.
