The Tremont FFA was re-chartered in 2012 and The Tremont FFA Alumni & Supporters group was chartered in 2016. Both the Tremont FFA and the Tremont FFA Alumni & Supporters are focused on providing opportunities for Tremont High School students to gain a deeper understanding of agriculture and its ties to our food, fuel and fiber, while also providing leadership opportunities and career engagement for the students.

Mission and Purpose of Illinois FFA Alumni groups across the state

Mission

The mission of the Illinois FFA Alumni Association is to secure the promise of FFA and agricultural education by creating an environment where people and communities can develop their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success.

Purpose

- ✓ To support and promote the FFA, its activities, and agriculture education at every level.
- ✓ To promote greater knowledge of the agricultural industry and support education in agriculture.
- ✓ To provide a tie to the FFA and assist the organization and education personnel and involve former members in worthy activities.
- ✓ To promote agriculture education so those living in our cities are aware that agriculture provides food, fiber and employment.
